with Cassia-Merpati Resettlement Team

Please refer to next page for Internship Opportunities

ABOUT THE ORGANIZATION

Cassia-Merpati Resettlement Team is a ground-up community organizations whose work is at the intersection of poverty, housing, health, community, and public policy. The team is currently supporting community members at public rental housing blocks at Cassia Crescent and Merpati Road who have been involuntarily relocated. Our scope of work includes direct engagement with community members through home visits.

ROLE

Your main role as a volunteer is to be a friend and support the various care needs of a low-income elderly community member. There is no specific scope in volunteering other than befriending and talking to community members because everything else we do is responsive to the community's needs.

COMMITMENT

You are required to commit to volunteering with the team for minimally 6 months, and able to commit on average 2 Saturdays a month from 10am till 2pm.

LOCATION

Cassia Crescent (Near Dakota / Mountbatten MRT)

LANGUAGE

You should be able to speak and understand basic English and Mandarin, or basic English and Malay.
